

Last Chance Audubon Society (LCAS) $1000 Scholarship Application, Selection Process and Schedule 2020 - 2021 Academic Year

1. LCAS application, selection process and schedule is posted on LCAS website (<http://www.lastchanceaudubon.org/learning/Scholarship>) and are available from High School contacts (Anna Doran at Capital High, Kelly Striezel at Helena High, and Wynn Randall, PAL - adoran@helenaschools.org, kstriezel@helenaschools.org and wrandall@helenaschools.org)

2. Students download application form, complete their applications, and email to scholarship@lastchanceaudubon.org with a teacher's letter of recommendation. (Teacher's letters can be emailed separately, if preferred.)

3. Applications are due no later than April 15, 2021 to allow enough time for college admission notifications/decisions.

4. LCAS's three-member selection committee reviews applications, ranks applicants individually, and then reach committee consensus on awards by the end of April. Up to two awards will be made each year.

5. LCAS selection committee makes selection(s) by April 30th and notifies the LCAS Board.

6. All students are notified of the Board decision including those students not receiving an award.

7. LCAS issues press release and selected students are reminded to notify their schools to publicize the LCAS award(s) at school commencement (s).

8. Checks sent or presented to students in early-mid August upon proof of college/ university registration
